AMES, IOWA
R.R. # 3

Bobbie,

Thank-you!

Well, I've known you for about three and one half years now and I've never known a sweeter girl. We've had a lot of fun together and I hope we can have even more fun. If it weren't for my drivers license we probably wouldn't have seen as much of each other. I don't even forget Miss Convern and Typing class, what a riot!

Oh yes that wonderful smile even though you didn't like it in here.

Well, as everyone else has said, best of luck in the following years, and I'll see you this summer?

Linda (you know the rest.)

to one of the kids I know. Loads of love in the future.

Bobbie, Well next year you will be one of these "62" seniors. Won't you? How was school this year. Hope it was a happygo lucky one. Well I'll be see'ing you this summer and next year I hope.

Good Bye

Love Carol
Good Luck!

P.S. I'll give you that picture.

Bobbi,

I've known you for a few years, but still don't know what to say. I don't like to say the old ~~favorite~~ saying so will try and be different. Softball in the past has been a lot of fun and I'm sure it will be this year. School has had its time of fun, I ~~only~~ wish I could have had you in some of my classes. We're going to beat Gilbert this year. I'll conclude with stay as happy as you are and then some. Don't mind my writing. You're one of my best friends and I know I'll be seeing a lot of this summer and future years. I know you'll have continued success but just remember me when you're at the top of the ladder of success. Luck always and happiness.

SPIRIT 1962

FOREWORD

The high school years are stages of growth and transition. The direction and form in which the individual grows greatly depends upon his high school. Through athletic, scholastic, and social activities Ames High is dedicated to developing the individual.

Bobbie,
I'm sure glad we got to be in 1st together.
Hasn't it been different than any other class you've ever been in? I know you weren't in 1st with me I'd not know you, so that's something to be thankful for?
Really now, I'm glad I got to know you.
Good luck in all you do.
Mona Berck

Growth is evident at Ames High for the second year in quite another form. The second addition to the new campus is being completed. This much-needed physical expansion will result in one of the finest schools in Iowa—a place for students to grow in mind, body, and spirit. To the growing students of a growing high school we present the 1962 SPIRIT.

Bobbie, We've sure had some great times together.
I've never enjoyed playing baseball as much as I did when I you and I got on the same team?
I hope we will have some classes together next year this summer at softball. Good Bless You Always.

ADMINISTRATION

School Board members: W. R. Underhill, Mrs. William Singer, Dr. Tom Hannum, Frank Howell, T. E. LaVelle, Frank Adams, Walter Hetzel, D. Jim Walter, Mrs. Wm. Buck, Herbert Howell.

Superintendent and School Board

Below: Superintendent Walter Hetzel.

Early this fall, a new school board was elected to cope with an old problem—where to house the ever-increasing enrollment in the Ames Public School system. The completed second unit of the new high school will help somewhat in reducing the strain felt in all our public schools.

The school board determines the overall policy for the management and operation of the school system. As the board's executive officer, Mr. Hetzel provides the facts necessary in making important decisions and sees that the board's decisions are carried out.

Officers of the school board are: Frank Adams, president; Frank Howell, secretary; and T. E. LaVelle, treasurer.

Above: Mr. Adams tells Chris Smith, SPIRIT Editor, about the improved SPIRIT-Web Staff facilities in the second unit of the new building.

Principals and Secretaries

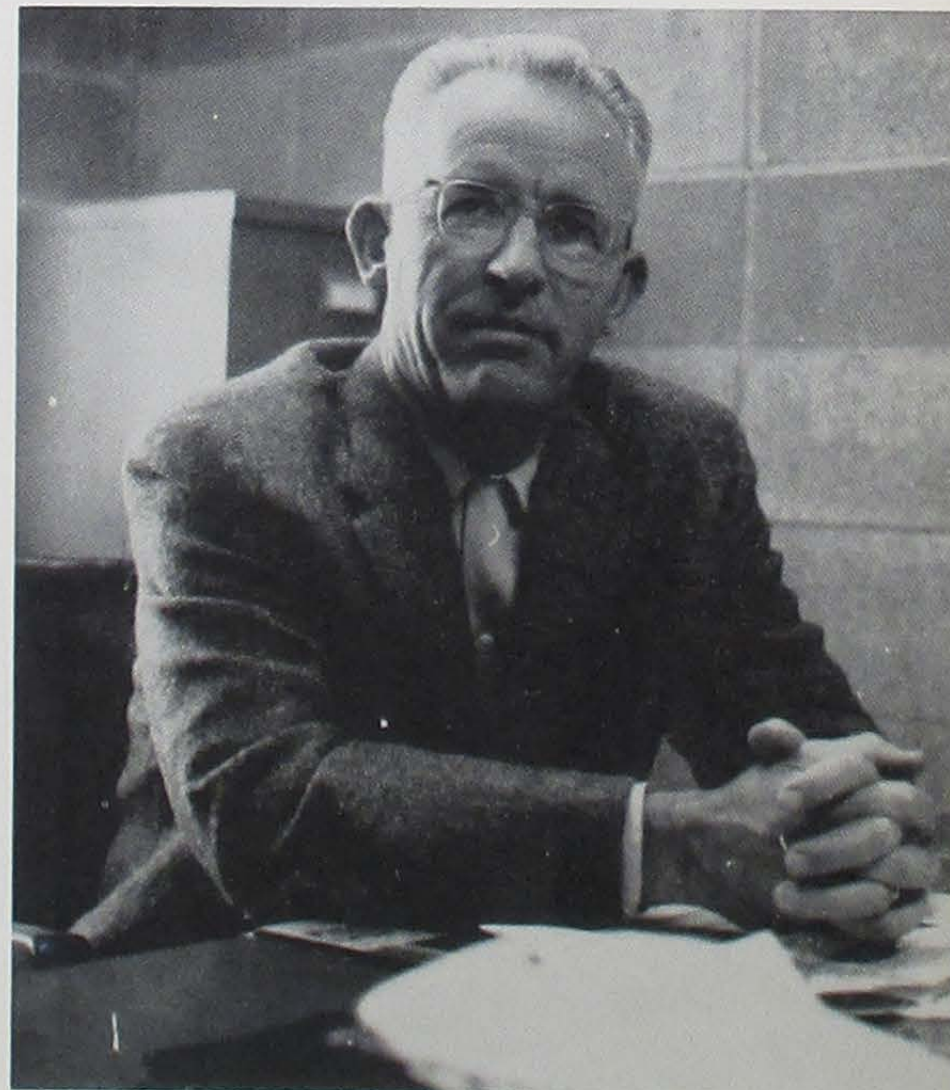

Helping students with their personal problems, making decisions which will affect Ames High School and future generations of students, interpreting the regulations of the Board of Education as they affect the policies of Ames High, planning schedules which will meet the needs of both students and teachers, and conferring with students and teachers—these are some of the many responsibilities of our principal, Mr. Herbert Adams.

The difficulty in fulfilling these responsibilities has been doubled with the fact that classes are held in two buildings. No other principal in the state faces such a scheduling problem.

Mr. Everett Ritland, as assistant principal, has been in charge of many of the immediate administrative duties in the new building. Working together, Mr. Adams, and Mr. Ritland have made the past two years of transition run smoothly.

Below: Mr. Everett Ritland.

Below: Mr. Adams' secretaries, Mrs. Daisy Flack, and Mrs. Carrell Windecker.

Lunches were prepared and served at the cafeteria by Mrs. Marsh and her assistants with the help of a student staff. As payment for their meals, the cafeteria workers sold and served the 35 cent lunch and sold extra milk. Boys on the staff were delegated the duty of cleaning up after the noon hour.

All meals appearing on the weekly menu met government requirements to be classified as type "A."

Always available to help at special functions taking place in the school buildings, the custodian staff of Ames High kept the two schools spotless and in excellent condition.

Student Council

This year the Student Council operated under a new committee system. The previous ten committees were reduced to four larger ones: social and welcoming, homecoming and money-making, assembly and election, and awards and noon hour. Although the methods were changed, the purpose remained the same: to provide a laboratory in democracy and to offer students an opportunity to participate in government.

First semester officers included Bruce Bergland, president; Paul McGuire, vice-president; Karen Smedal, secretary. Filling these positions second semester were John Hinrichsen, Jeff Peterson, and Marg Buchholtz. Bob Carr served as treasurer and Betty Keller as social chairman for the entire year.

Junior Exec and Senior Senate

The Junior Executive Council, under the direction of Mr. McBride, sold Homecoming mums, school directories, AHS stationery, and sponsored a car wash, leaf rake, and the class play, "Heaven Can Wait," to raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom. Junior class officers were Bob Beaty, president; Mike Allen, vice-president; Archie Greene, secretary; and Barb Lindell, treasurer.

The Senior Senate handled the business of the Senior Class. They ordered announcements, name cards, caps and gowns, and planned the Senior picnic, Baccalaureate and Commencement. Senior Class officers were Bill Rosebrook, president; Bill Landsberg, vice-president; Jean Fellows, secretary; and Scott Feamster, treasurer. Mr. Ritland was the class sponsor.

Senior Senate: Back: D. Oshel, D. Trexel, J. Everson, N. Callahan, N. Hazel. Front: Mr. Ritland, J. Fellows, B. Rosebrook, B. Landsberg.

ACTIVITIES

Even though nobody learned much in typing class, it sure was a riot.

You're a real sweet girl, and I hope you have a lot of fun this summer

Good Luck,

Sherry Taylor

Ames High Girl Reserves was created to unite all high school girls both spiritually and recreationally. Besides being an organization for education and fellowship, Girl Reserves is a service group. Through the Foster Parents' Plan Luciana Savine, an Italian teen-ager, is supported. At Christmas time presents were packed and personally delivered to the residents of the Story County Home. Other highlights this year were a Sophomore Mixer, Junior Dad-Daughter Date Night, Senior Mother-Daughter Tea, Teens Against Polio Drive, Christmas Wreath Sales, and most important of all, Friendship Week, sponsored jointly with Hi-Y.

This year's officers were Lenesa Legvold and Ann Lundvall, presidents; Judy Agard, secretary, Mary Beth Kirkham and Anne Graca, treasurers; and Peg Duke and Linda Breckenridge, presidents of representatives.

Hi-Y is the largest boys' organization in the high school. Its aim, as stated in the constitution, is to "create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. In advancing this purpose the club shall engage in various activities designed to be a service to the school and community and to spread the reputation of the school."

The club meets about once every two months for an assembly and once every two months for participation in hobby groups. These groups offer each individual a chance to take part in his favorite hobby or activity.

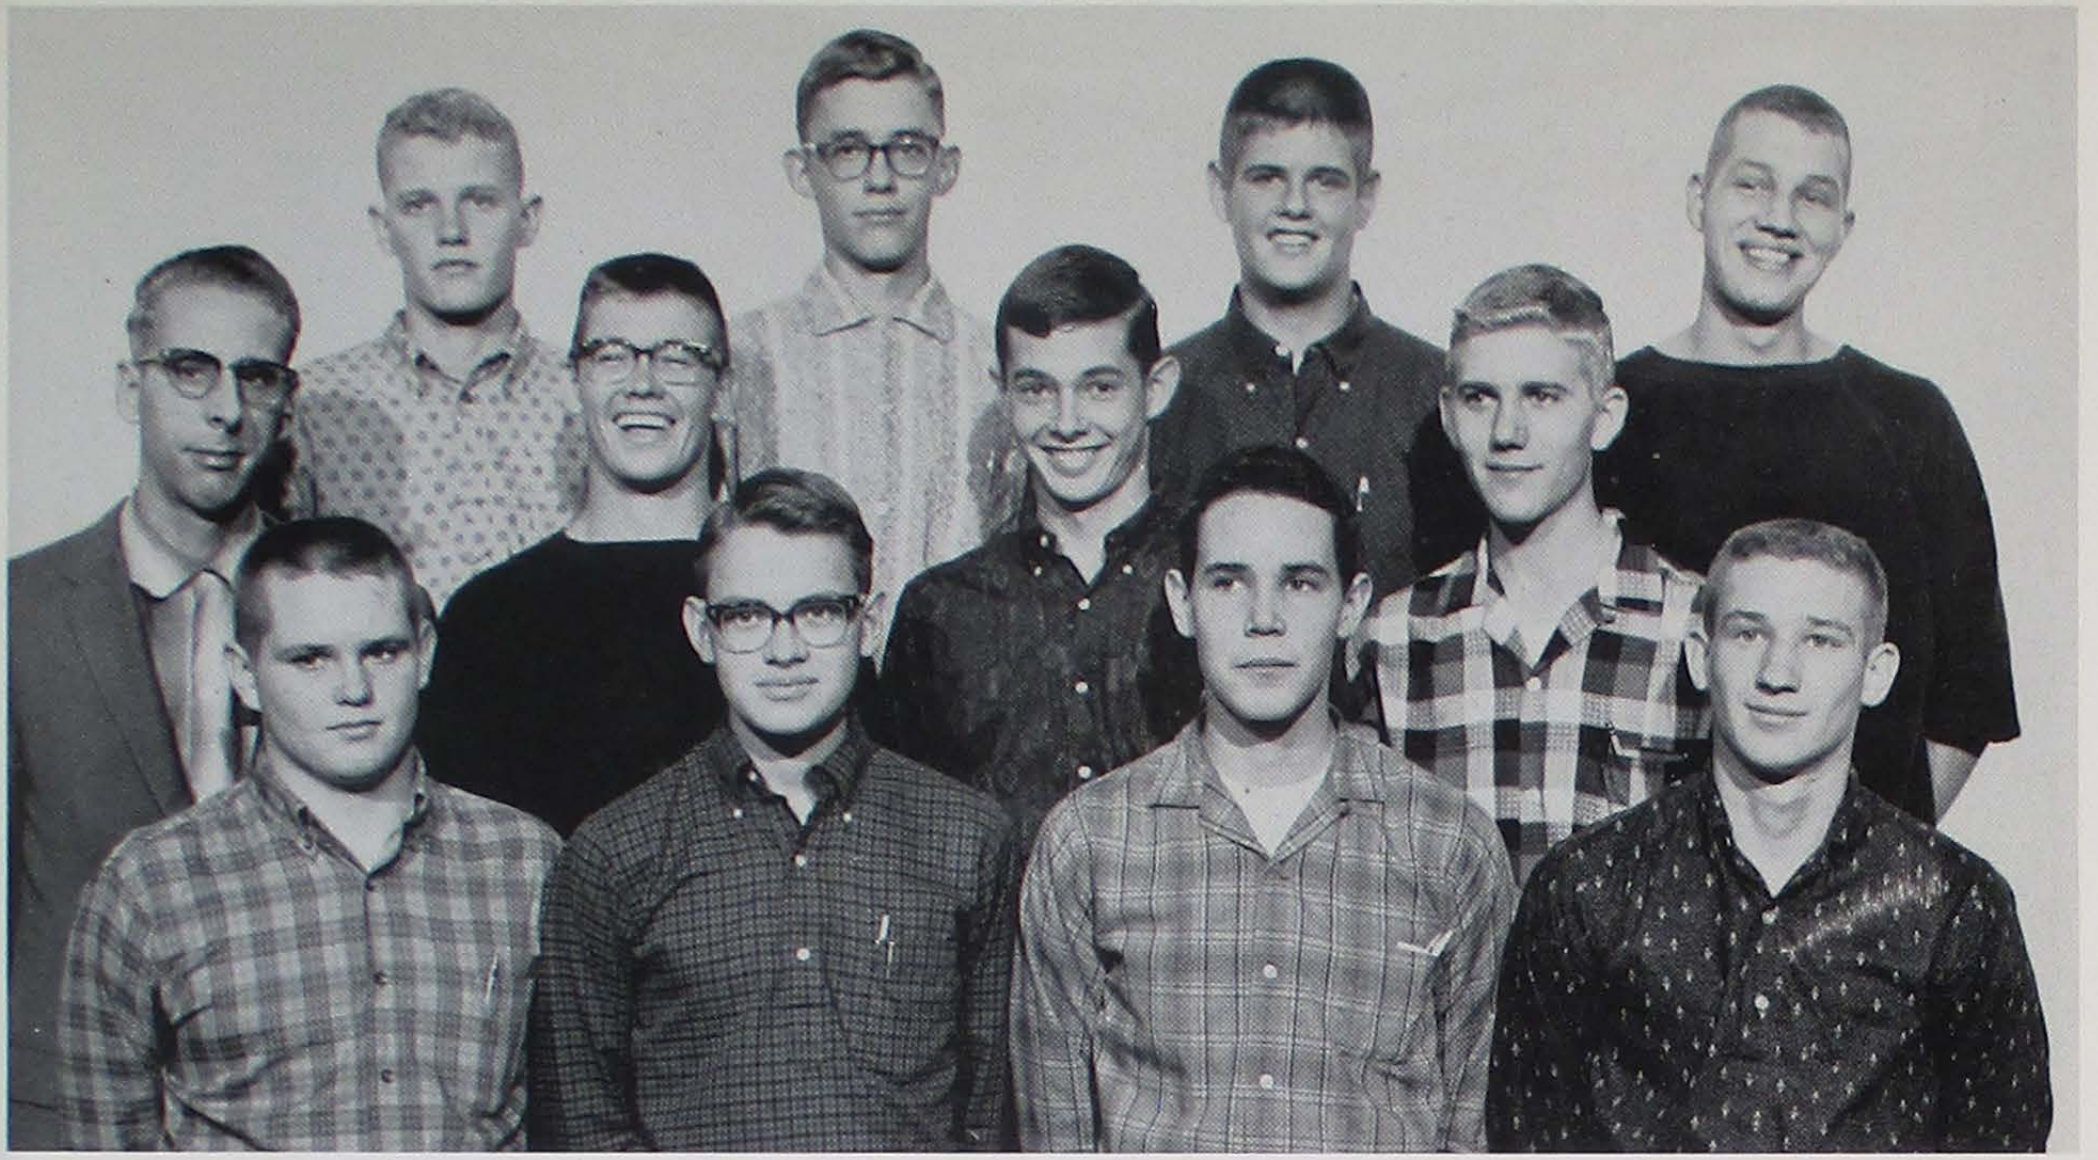

The Hi-Y organizes several projects in conjunction with the Girl Reserves, among which are Friendship Week and Teens Against Polio.

Serving as officers for the first semester were John Ritland, president; Paul Anderson, vice-president; and Loran Randles, secretary. Second semester officers were Bill Jackson, Dick Clark, and Paul Townsend. Kendrick Brown served as treasurer for the entire year.

Band

Below: Last minute preparations before the band takes the field.

The four bands of Ames High were organized to acquaint the players with good band music. The bands did much to promote school spirit and furnished entertainment at school functions.

The marching band performed at all home football games and in the Veishea Parade. The concert band's program for the year included its annual public concert, and assembly program, and participation in the Tri-City Band Festival held this year at Fort Dodge.

The pep band played at all the home basketball games and pep assemblies.

Sophomore band was not a performing group. Its purpose is to prepare players for concert and marching band.

Band officers were Lyn Brown, president; John Quam, vice-president; Carolyn Bogue, secretary-treasurer, and Joel Cerwick, librarian.

Orchestra

Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Dean Moberg, provided Ames High students with musical interest and ability a chance to express themselves by playing works of the world's greatest composers.

Orchestra activities included three concerts, performances of the pit orchestra at plays, and early morning practices twice a week. One concert was given for the student body, and a mid-winter Pops Concert for the public.

Officers of the organization were Bill Strand, president; Don Miller, vice-president; Betty Keller, secretary-treasurer; and Chris Smith, librarian.

A Cappella Choir

"Where shall we go today?" is the musical strain that every choir member warms up on. Each practice session is devoted to perfecting musical phrasing and dynamics, preparing for performances, and just singing for fun.

Many types of music, predominately religious, are sung at many performances during the year. The choir is heard at Thanksgiving, Christmas, during Friendship Week, at the Spring Vocal Program, and at Commencement.

This year seven quartets were picked from the choir to participate in the All-State Chorus in Des Moines on November 25.

Officers for 1961-1962 were Dick Clark, president; Bob Talcott, vice-president; and Leslie Osam, secretary-treasurer.

Dear Lee Ann,
This second semester has been more fun with you in all my morning classes! Term paper and 1000 word themes aside!
I'm still paying addy for what I did to the car on the way on our way to the B-ball game! That's the spice of life huh? You're a wonderful girl as always with enough T.I.N. -

When you put on my "Milk" shirt, I'm 100% sure you're not trying to behave yourself! (I'm 100% sure you're not)
I have fun with life & love, but at least try to behave yourself!

First Semester staff: T. Pappas, N. Durian, B. Rosebrook, M. Voigt, S. Thogerson.

Journalism

Thirty-one seniors worked for a semester each this year to turn out the Ames High Web published weekly by the Ames Daily Tribune.

As one of the senior elective English courses, journalism provided an opportunity for students to obtain inside knowledge of the workings of a newspaper and a chance to have their qualified works appear in print.

Scratch Pad

Scratch Pad was this year's publication of creative writing done by AHS students. The manuscripts submitted represent not only outstanding pieces written for English classes, but also unassigned poems, short stories, and sketches of students who write as a hobby. One issue of Scratch Pad came out this year. Darlene Spencer was this year's editor; her assistants were Dick Millspaugh and Sandy Feamster.

Debate Club

"Whether or not the Federal government should equalize educational opportunity by means of grants to the states for public, elementary, and secondary education" was the topic of debate at the five out-of-town tournaments.

Officers of Debate Club were Bill Easton, president; Bill Wickersham, vice-president; and Linda Uthe, secretary-treasurer.

Language Clubs

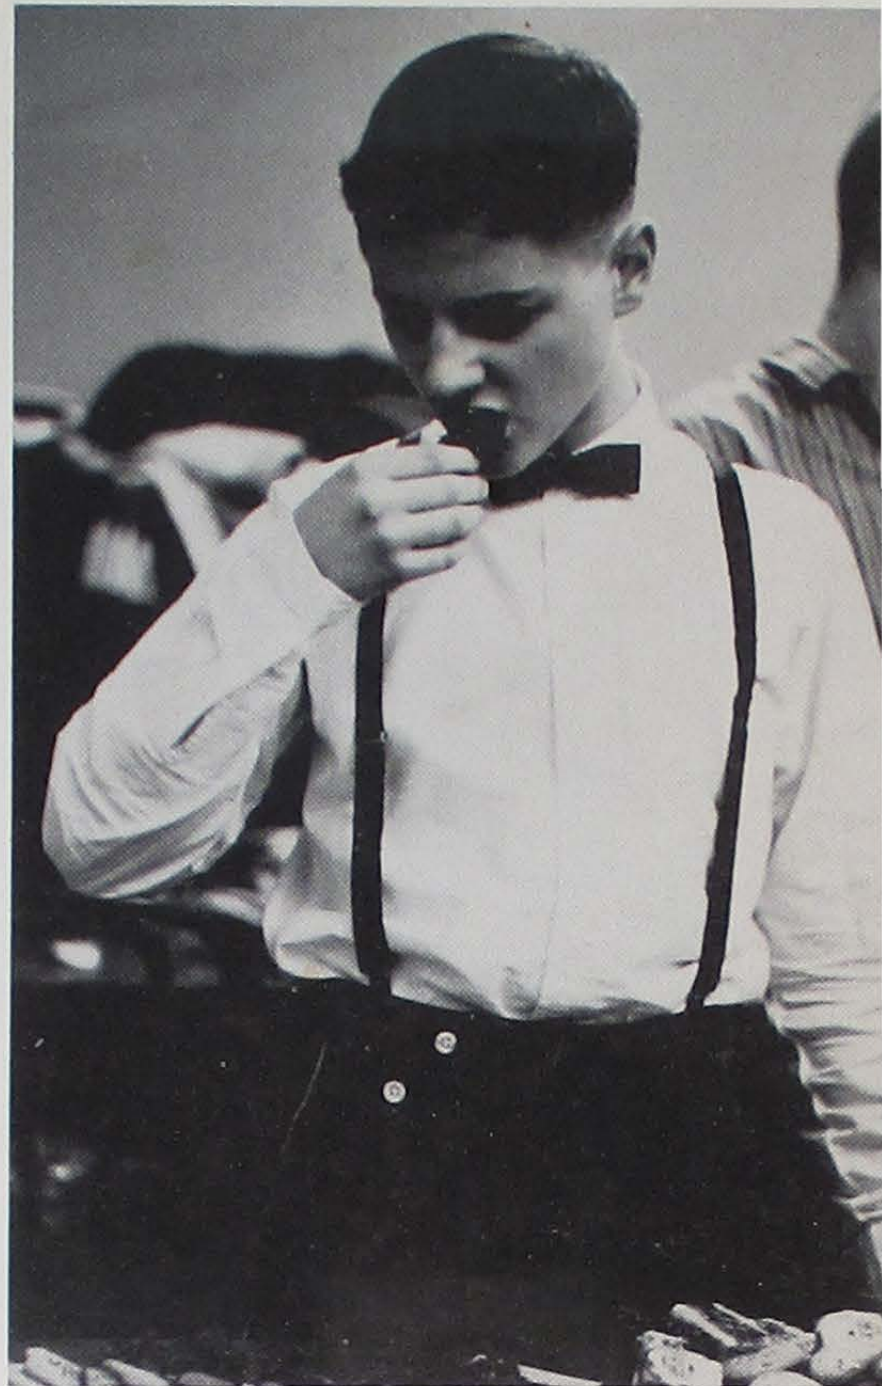

The International Christmas Party was the highlight of the year for the combined language clubs. Each club meets separately each month to learn about customs and people of the different countries.

A special Latin Club event was the Roman Banquet in May. A French dinner and a Mardi Gras were French Club activities. The German Club was divided into three groups—the Edelweiss, the Wandervogel, and the Tirol—for planning the yearly activities. A special Spanish Club project was aiding Spanish libraries.

Library Club

Below: Library Club meets at noon.

The Library Club is a service organization. The twenty-five members meet to learn about filing material in vocational, college, vertical, and art files, and to arrange books on shelves. The club members assist teachers and students in finding needed materials. Lynn Swanson and Margaret Goodman were the president and secretary this year.

Science Seminar

Students interested in the varied fields of science find an opportunity to investigate their interest further by participating in Science Seminar, sponsored by the science department.

"The basis for the 1961-1962 series was combining theory with laboratory experience," according to Richard Trump, director. Single topics were explored through a series of Tuesday night meetings, consisting of lecture-discussions and work with equipment in the new science laboratories.

Seminar students received one-fourth credit for the year and a certificate indicating acceptable or superior project work. Members of the seminar were expected to work on projects in the nature of short experiments or long-term problems. The students also do extensive outside reading.

Student Treasurers

Below: It looks as though they've never seen a real ten-dollar bill!

Student treasurers of school organizations learned many financial procedures by collecting money, making out receipts, planning a tentative budget, and making financial reports. All treasurers were responsible to Miss Mary McNally, general treasurer of Ames High, who was assisted this year by Paul Anderson.

Qualities looked for by a sponsor in choosing a student for the job of treasurer in an organization include dependability, neatness, accuracy, and availability.

Fire Squad

Below: Law and order will prevail.

Members of the firesquad were responsible for keeping order in the halls and at all school-sponsored functions. Students caught violating school rules were reported to the firesquad faculty sponsors, Mr. Ripp and Mr. Wood. Commonly violated rules are: running in halls, sitting on desks, and crowding in the lunch line.

Posts in the halls were assigned weekly to firesquad members; those failing to be on their posts were fined accordingly. Fine money financed the annual squad picnic held in the spring.

Officers this year were Dick Clark and John Ritland, co-firechiefs, and John Hinrichsen, secretary-treasurer.

DECA

Ames High students enrolled in Cooperative Distributive Education have had the chance to participate in the Ames High chapter of the Distributive Education Club of America.

Commonly known as DECA, the purpose of the club is to give its members a look at the career opportunities in the field of commercial distribution.

Officers for this year were Linda Nelson, president; George Reinbold, vice-president; Mike Childs, treasurer; and Judy Holdredge, secretary; Linda Nelson also served as DECA secretary for the State of Iowa.

At left: These eleven boys started against Roosevelt. Two remained at the same position for the Newton game.

AMES 20 ROOSEVELT 13

Ames opened at home against Roosevelt of Des Moines. After a shaky beginning, Ames built up a lead of 13-0. A Bergland pass to McGuire was good for six; and a run by Klingseis, followed by a successful kick, added seven more. Roosevelt got back in the game when they returned the following kickoff 91 yards to score, leaving Ames with a half-time score of 13-7.

Ames scored again in the third quarter when Bergland lugged the pigskin over from the two. A successful conversion ended the quarter.

Roosevelt could score only once more and Ames won 20-13.

For his part, Bergland earned UPI Back of the Week award, while end Paul McGuire won honorable mention for his line play.

AMES 20 OSKALOOSA 0

Ames opened up conference competition by playing host to Oskaloosa. Runs by Bergland, Klingseis, and Hills highlighted an otherwise dull showing.

Bergland scored for Ames in the first quarter on a 47-yard reverse. Thorson booted true to give us the edge, 7-0.

The second quarter was pounded out near midfield. In the third quarter a blocked punt set Ames up to score. Klingseis took it over to make it 13-0.

A fourth quarter pass from Alfred to Klingseis netted 31 yards and six points. Ames sewed it up when Thorson's toe again succeeded. Hills then came on to give Oskaloosa a lesson in open-field running. In two plays he accounted for 43 yards of crowd-pleasing footwork.

Ames looked unimpressive and knew it, but the Little Cyclones were still happy with another mark in the win column.

Below: A Roughrider is dragged to the turf by McGuire.

Above: Townsend and the gang put an end to a short gain.
Right: Barnett finds a little daylight.

AMES 7 BOONE 0

Ames traveled to Boone and met the Torreadors, a team with the idea of latching onto a victory bell that hasn't seen much of Boone High in the past 28 years. Ames, however, had decided to keep it.

The stands were filled and the fans were yelling for action as they nervously stole glances at the ominous clouds.

Neither team could score in the first half, and with the end of the half came the end of dry football for the evening. Umbrellas popped up throughout the stands and the rains came.

The third quarter featured a punting duel between Dutton of Boone and Townsend. It was fitting that Townsend should break through and block a punt to set up the game's only score. Klingseis did the honors accounting for both the touchdown and the point.

Ames fans, drenched but happy, started home . . . and not without the bell.

AMES 20 MARSHALLTOWN 26

Ames dropped its first conference game in eight years at Marshalltown 26-20.

The Little Cyclones, playing their best football to date, piled up a 20-6 lead. Bergland scored twice in the first half and Klingseis grabbed both extra points. Marshalltown retaliated with a successful drive to get back in the game. But Ames was not through and, with one second in the half, Ricketts shared a pass to make it 20-6.

Two different teams showed up for the second half. The Ames defense failed, and the Bobcats started to move. Marshalltown scored on a double pass, and the score became 20-13.

They scored twice in the fourth quarter to ruin Ames, 26-20.

A tired, dejected, and depressed bunch of Ames guys left the field, now starting to realize that a team can't win on its past alone.

AMES 7 WEST WATERLOO 13

One week had passed since Marshalltown out fought Ames. The Orange and Black were just starting to feel the personnel losses that were to become "old hat." Tonight Ames was to be outmanned, but not outfought.

West Waterloo scored first in the second quarter on a twenty yard sprint. Ames stopped the conversion but were down by six points.

With the half nearly gone, Klingseis took a punt and covered sixty-seven yards as the crowd flies but many more by the route which he had chosen.

The game was tied, and a pitchout to Ames' other speedster, Larry Hills, gave Ames the halftime lead, 7-6.

The third quarter was much the first, with Townsend's punting keeping Ames out of serious trouble.

The final tally came in the last quarter. West pounded out a touchdown through Ames' battered line and scored the conversion to smash Ames 13-7.

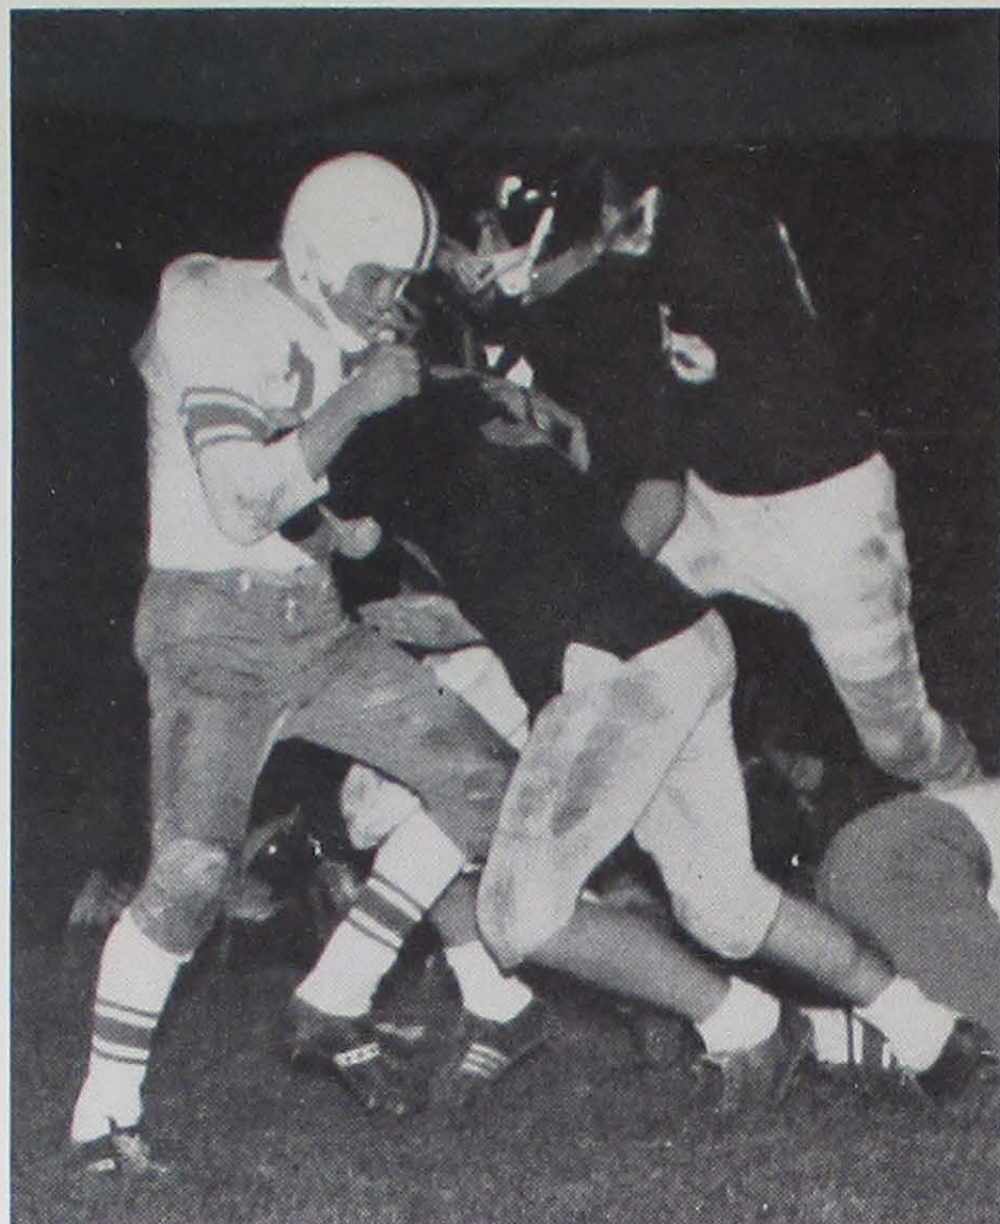

Ames had looked better, but not quite good enough, and were again forced to taste defeat.

AMES 0 E.S.C. 7

Lincoln Way Stadium was the scene of the next Ames High tragedy. Homecoming was the occasion and the Little Cyclones seemed up for the game, despite serious injury losses.

In the first quarter neither squad could push the ball across. East opened up the second quarter with a touchdown to give them the halftime lead, 7-0.

In the second half, Ames stopped several sustained drives by the Raiders. In the fourth quarter Ames stopped the East Side gang on the ten and before the game.

then again on the nine. But time ran out for Ames and East left with the game 7-0.

AMES 13 GRINNELL 7

Ames returned to its winning ways when the Little Cyclones spoiled Grinnell's homecoming, 13-7. With the exception of a few fumbles, Ames played near perfect ball, especially on defense. Townsend, Tice, and Clark had returned to help the shaky line situation.

Ames opened the scoring in the second quarter on an eleven-yard run by Bergland. The conversion failed, but Ames had the halftime lead, 6-0.

The Orange and Black scored again in the third quarter when sophomore Barnett bulled his way over from the ten. Bergland made good the point attempt to give Ames a 13 point advantage.

Grinnell had time to score, but only once, and Ames won 13-7.

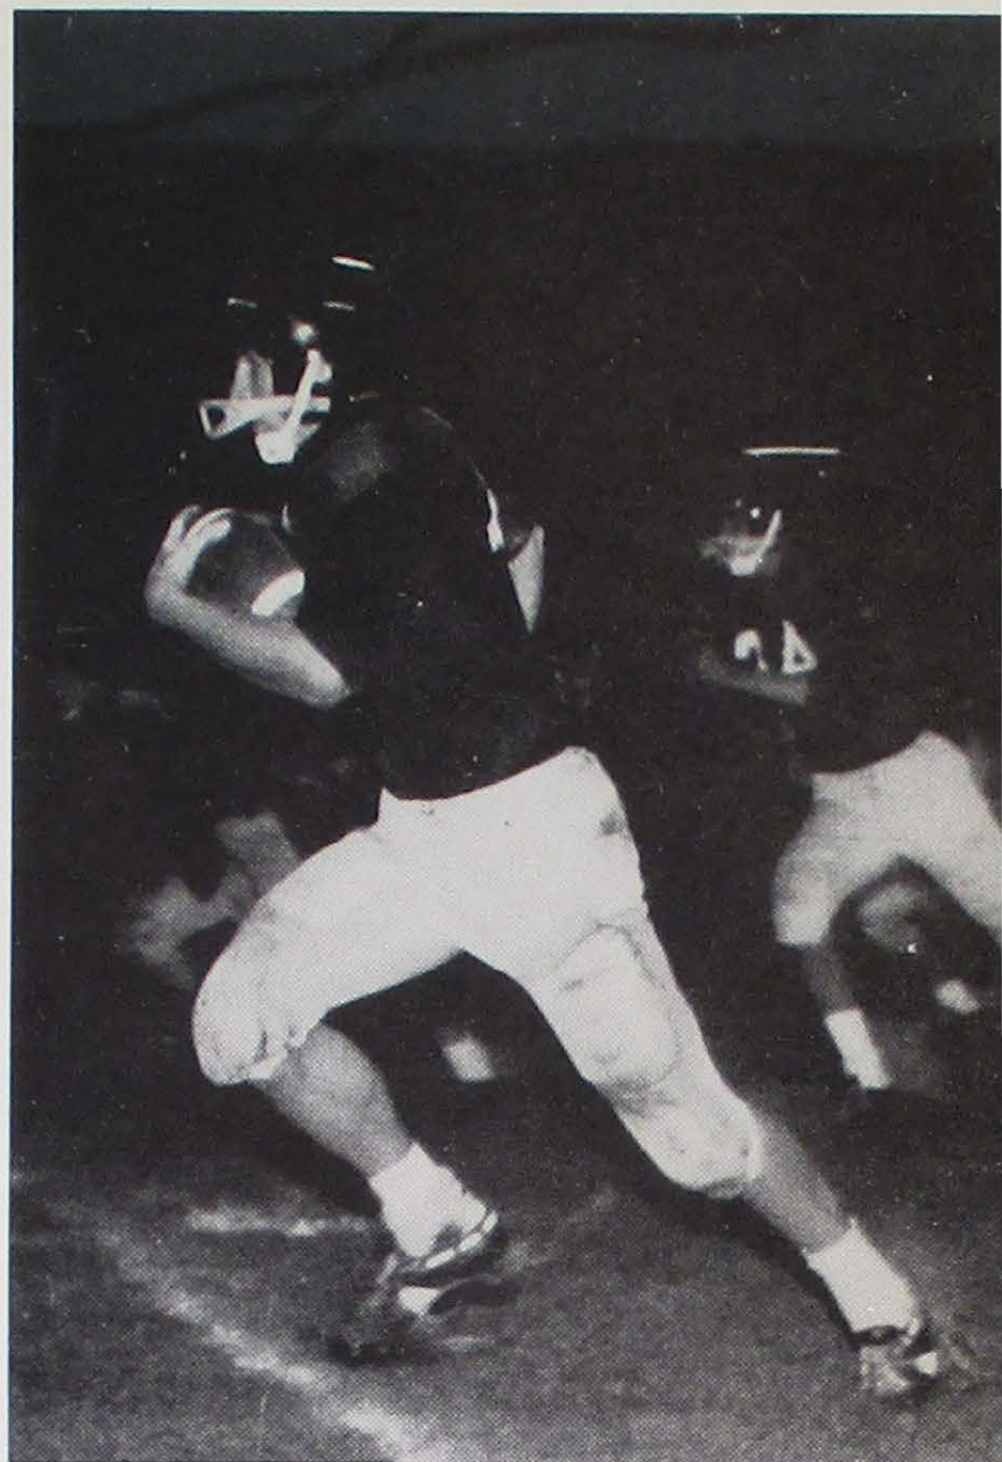

Coach Kenny Wells was pleased with the play of the squad. He said the Orange and Black appeared to be on the upswing.

Right: Bergland keeps on an option and breaks downfield.

AMES 12 NEWTON 13

An extra point gave Newton the C.I.C. crown as they nosed out Ames 13 to 12. Ames played a good game, but Newton was as tough as expected. While Ames outrushed Newton, the Cardinals took the scoring edge and that's all that counts.

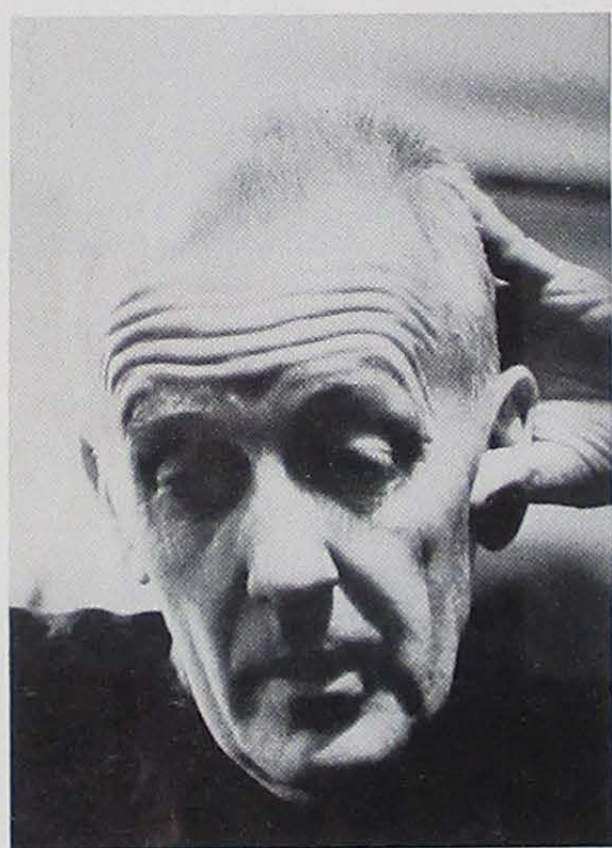

Ames scored in the second quarter to start things off. A pass from Alfred to Bergland gave Ames six points and a lead. Newton took the ball down the field to knot up the score and end the half 6-6.

Ames chalked up another T.D. in the third quarter on another pass, this time from Grabau to Klingseis. Ames blew the extra point but held a small advantage, 12-6.

Newton ate up nearly the entire fourth quarter staging one drive. This march proved fatal when they scored not only the touchdown but the first extra point of the game.

Coach Wells was disappointed with the loss, but not with the play of his boys.

The Ames High Sophomores, coached by Maurice Hausheer and his assistant, Paul Anderson, finished the season undefeated. After tying the first game with Webster City, the sophs won five straight. They posted victories over Nevada, Marshalltown, Newton, East Des Moines, and Fort Dodge. Many of the sophomores will be counted on heavily. Congratulations to the sophs for a very successful season.

Ames Finishes T

The Little Cyclones finished conference play with third place and a record of 6 wins and 4 losses. The overall record was 9-6. The conference proved to be the toughest in years, with both Marshalltown and Newton boasting powerhouses. Ames split with Marshalltown, winning at home and losing on the road, a practice that has become almost a custom with these two teams. Newton posted two victories over the Orange and Black while Grinnell handed Ames its other defeat in a surprising upset.

At the outset of the season, it was generally felt that this was a team of absolutely no depth. But as the season progressed, more than ten boys proved that they could handle a starting position. It seemed that the high scorer changed with the week; several different boys leading the team at various times.

Third In C.I.C.

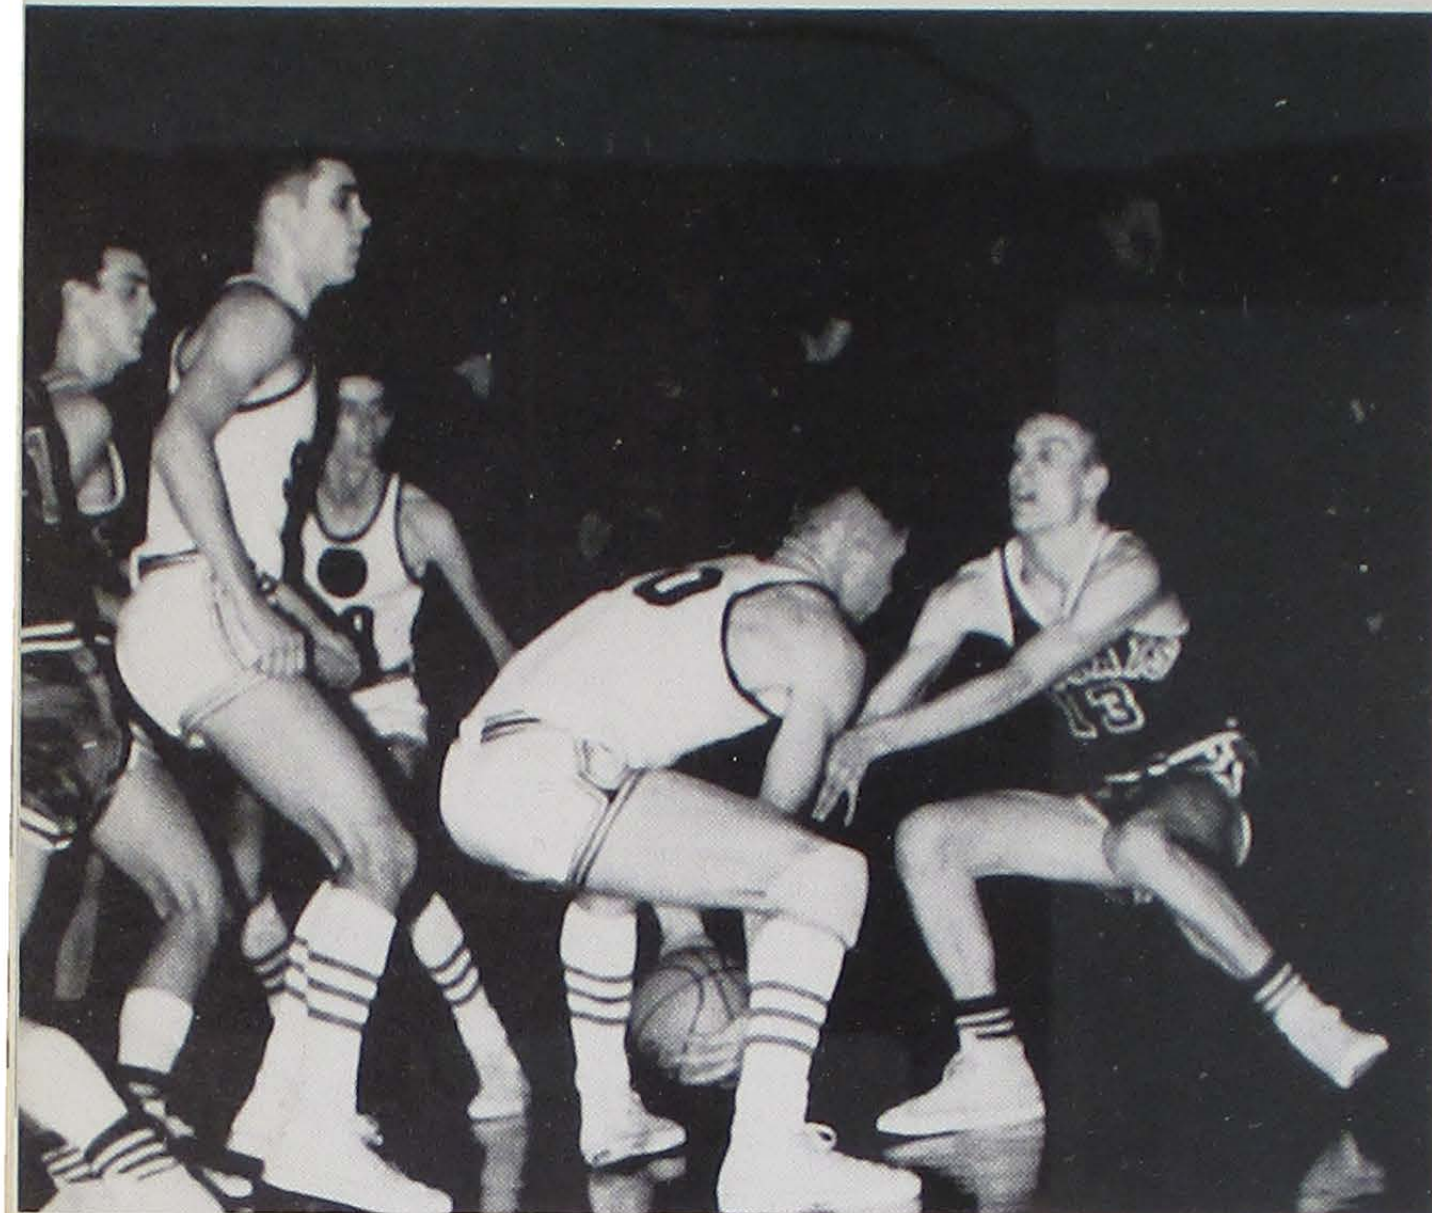

The team seemed to develop as the season went on, but a "starting five" as such was never found.

The overtime plagued Ames several times during the season. The Little Cyclones dropped three conference games in overtime, these being to Marshalltown, Newton, and Grinnell. Victories in these games would have greatly affected the final standings.

Prospects for next year look promising with many boys who have starting experience returning. Among these are Landsberg, Mickelson, Schank, Soesbe, Runyan, and Grabau. The team will also be aided by the sophomores, who tied for first place in the conference and placed four boys in the top fifteen scorers.

The sophomore basketball team, coached by Cecil Spatcher, enjoyed a fine season, compiling a 7-1 record in conference play at the time of this writing. The Orange and Black Sophs suffered the only conference loss at the hands of Newton.

Over all, the team's record 10-3, dropping non-conference to Roosevelt and Webster City.

G.R.A.

The Girls' Recreational Association is an organization for AHS girls who are interested in bowling or in playing volleyball, basketball, tennis, golf, badminton, softball, tug-of-war, or volley tennis. The organization strives to develop a spirit of fair-play, to give girls a chance for physical activity, and to create a desire for physical discipline in senior high girls.

Intramurals

Ames High boys may participate in any activity on the intramural program providing that they have not received a major letter in that sport. Points are awarded to the homeroom for competition on a 12-8-6-4-2 basis for sports held once a year, and a 6-4-3-2-1 basis for sports held both in the fall and spring. Trophies are awarded to the highest-ranking homeroom at the end of the year in each of the three classes.

Competition is held twice a year in tennis, golf and horseshoes. Once-a-year sports include pass and touch football, tug-o-war, cross country run, swimming, track, table tennis, badminton, bowling, wrestling, volleyball, and basketball.

Babbe,
Hi, See it sure has been fun having you in homeroom. Remember all the fun we had in D.R.A.? The few times I went were sure fun. I didn't see you much this year, I hope to see more of you next year. Maybe we'll get some classes together next year.
Hope I see you this summer. You are really a sweet girl, don't ever lose that charming feature.

Good Luck,

Homecoming 1961

Sue Soult reigned over the 1961 Homecoming festivities. At the Thursday afternoon pep assembly, Bruce Bergland, Student Body President, presented Queen Sue and her two attendants, Peg Duke and Linda Nelson.

Following the pep assembly, the marching Pep Club, the Queen and attendants, the players atop the Pep club float, and marching band formed a procession to City Hall where a rally speech was given by Councilman Judge.

Although the students cheered their hardest and the boys on the squad gave all they had for a victory, the Little Cyclones suffered a defeat in the game with East Sioux City.

The Homecoming Dance, held in the new high school after the game, provided the finale to a memorable Homecoming, 1961.

Dr. Ray Bryan of Iowa State University addressed the student body Nov. 21, 1961, at the annual Career Night assembly. Dr. Bryan recommended that before choosing a career each student should discriminately view what is demanded of him along with the rewards of the occupation. The remainder of the evening's program consisted of two forty minute periods during which experts in certain fields discussed their vocations with small groups of students.

Held Dec. 5, from seven to nine p.m., College Night was attended by 230 students this year. Representatives from 30 schools discussed their colleges with students in three thirty minute sessions. Representing the three classes were 130 seniors, 70 juniors, and 30 sophomores.

Court Day

Court Day is held each year so that seniors may become better acquainted with court proceedings and our legal system. Approximately 200 Ames High seniors attended the Seventh Annual District Court Day Nov. 30, 1961. Twelve jury members were selected from the students to decide the case presented by Story County attorneys.

The jury returned a split verdict on the civil trial of a mock auto damage suit based on an actual case.

Christmas Formal, 1961

Ames High School students and alumni danced to the music of the Do-Re Sextet at the annual Christmas Dance, "Twilight." The dance, sponsored by the senior girls was held in the Sun Room of Memorial Union on December 27.

Robin Ruhe and Jean Fellows were the dance co-chairmen. Committee members were Kris Hawkes, Eileen Orlovich, Jean Van Ness, Judy Agard, Julie Packer, Sue Ethington, Sherry Martin, Ann Lundvall, Sue Soult, Linda Breckenridge, Kathy Stine, Judy Fincham, Charlotte Judge.

The Campaign

"I vote John" was a phrase with a dual purpose this year since the only two candidates that ran for Student Body President were John Larson and John Hinrichsen. The campaign week was devoted to posters in the halls, friendly persuasion, and the nominating and rally assemblies, which featured a band, a cheersquad of boys, and a mock murder. After the dust cleared, it was announced that John Hinrichsen was S.B.P. for the second semester of the '61-'62 school year.

Sweetheart Candidates: Back: L. Nelson, C. Judge, T. Goettsch, J. Agard. Front: L. Legvold, P. Duke, C. Smith, S. Ethington.

Spirit Dance

"A Touch of Blue" was a touch of brightness in a long semester week. For 250 students the SPIRIT dance provided an opportunity to dress up, to closely inspect the "new" new building, and to witness the crowning of the 1962 SPIRIT Sweetheart. The dance, sponsored by the juniors on the staff, was emceed by Sports Editor, Loran Randles.

"... Miss Sue Ethington!"

Sweetheart attendants Judy, Lenesa, Toi, and Queen, Sue are congratulated by their dates.

Lee Ann
 nice time in typing this year, Miss Cowin is a lot of fun to work for see you next year
 Connie

Dear Lee Ann,
 I was afraid that you wouldn't even be in my homeroom this year, but you finally made it.
 You're a sweet person - always happy and so much fun. After last year, it was hard for me to keep quiet during announcements. Well
 if luck holds, I'll see you next year.
 Nancy Jones

Lee Ann, fun
 it's been in H.K.
 having you in your 2nd semester. You're a great gal with lot 3
 of spirit. Stay happy hold a high respect for you. Good luck, always.
 Love ya,
 Carol

Dear Lee Ann

I had as I've tried I never did quite get used to the name Bobby so please forgive me for your name so formally. I think we've shared a tremendous experience in Mr. Cole's lit - at least I know that I'll never forget.

I hope that someday you will be able to overwhelm
 the world with square-dancing and show them what is really fun
 I certainly have enjoyed having you here this year.

Lee Ann -
 It has been nice knowing you this year. I wish you
 the best of everything.
 See you next year.
 Laurie

Lee Ann,
 I have enjoyed having you in my
 1st. Class second semester. I hope you will be in more of them next year. Best of luck.

J. Jack

I enjoyed being with you just almost and seeing you whenever I could during second semester. It's too bad that you weren't at the new building, because you really mixed out on a lot of his side. Maybe next year we can be in some classes together. You have a fine personality, which will really get you places in the future as it has already. May your future hold only the best for you.

Mary Whately

Bobbi -
 See. I get to sign in the middle! Have you improved in your tennis?
 I haven't! But, oh well.
 Hasn't Lit been about a riot & a half? It's a farce but every once in a while there are really some unique statements. See you next year!
 Well, goodbye, good luck!
 & have fun & stay happy, sober, etc.
